SUPPLEMENT TO THE "DAILY PRESS."

LONDON, 21st December, 1973.

The Admiralty has ordered the River Patrol in the greatest confusion.

The Revenue for the year is 774 millions.

The Ministry of Education has announced that the Hong Kong, 31st January, 1974.

CRICKET.

Last week, the Hong Kong Cricket Club met non-committal officers and men of the Garrison on the 1st, and the Victoria Cricket Club on the 3rd, receiving a complete defeat from the first, and scoring a complete victory from the latter.

The soldiers of the Club out for 41 and 85, no one making any stand against the bowling of Elton and Newton, except Mowbray, Head and Darby, who scored 37 and 21 respectively, in the first innings. The second innings was badly missed at short ball to be scored.

For the Garrison, Drummer Elton, as usual, hit brilliantly, putting together no less than 61 in 18 hits, among which were two sixes and a four of three runs. Newton, Elton, and Fairbank played steadily and well for 33, 23, and 13 respectively, and the innings closed for 147.

On Saturday, the club was not much cricketer, with the weather being cold and unpleasant on both days.
